Suffolk County Battle of the Books

is an inter-library program focusing on eight young adult novels. On the day of the Battle, each team participates in four separate rounds. Each round covers two of the eight books, and each team is given twenty questions per round. The top teams will compete for the County Championship on Monday night.

Battle of the Books Rules

Local Teams

- Teams are limited to six players
- Members must be entering grades 6-9.
- Only three team members may be “in play” at any time.
- Player substitutions amongst team members are allowed at the discretion of the Team Coach, when the team is in downtime during a round.
- Each team will participate in four rounds.
- Guests are welcome to both days of the Battle.

Regional Battle Rounds

- Teams will play in one of three sessions: morning, afternoon or evening.
- Twenty questions will be posed to each team per round.
- To assure all titles are Battled, two titles will be announced at the beginning of each round and the questions for that round will only come from those titles.
- Questions are posed to individual teams that will then have five seconds to answer.

- Answers may take any form: author, title, plot, character, setting, detail or quote identification.
- Decisions of the Judges are final.
- Teams that answer out of turn will lose a point and the team in play will immediately receive a new question.
- At the discretion of the Battle staff, guests creating a disruption may be asked to leave the room for the remainder of the round.
- At the discretion of the Judge, teams creating a disruption may lose a point.
- While the game is in play, no photography or recording is allowed. Electronic devices should be silenced.

Championship Rounds & Awards

August 14th @ 6:00 PM

- The top scoring team from each session will compete. The fourth competitor in the Final Competition will be the team with the next highest Saturday score out of all three sessions.
- There will be two semi-final rounds of twenty five questions each, with questions covering all 8 titles.
- The winners of these two rounds will then compete for the Suffolk County Championship in a final round.
- The four highest-scoring teams will receive ribbons.
- Teams awarded “Most Creative Uniform,” “Team Choice,” “Good Sportsmanship” & “Team Spirit” will receive their ribbons on Monday night.

If you have any questions about the Battle of the Books program, contact your local library.
